Notice of the Insured's Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of insurance with the insurer, you have a duty, under the insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could be reasonably expected to know, which is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance. Your duty however does not require disclose of matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge
- that your insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure the insurance company may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of this claim or may cancel the insurance.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.
